

THE STAR'S DAILY PICTORIAL PAGE

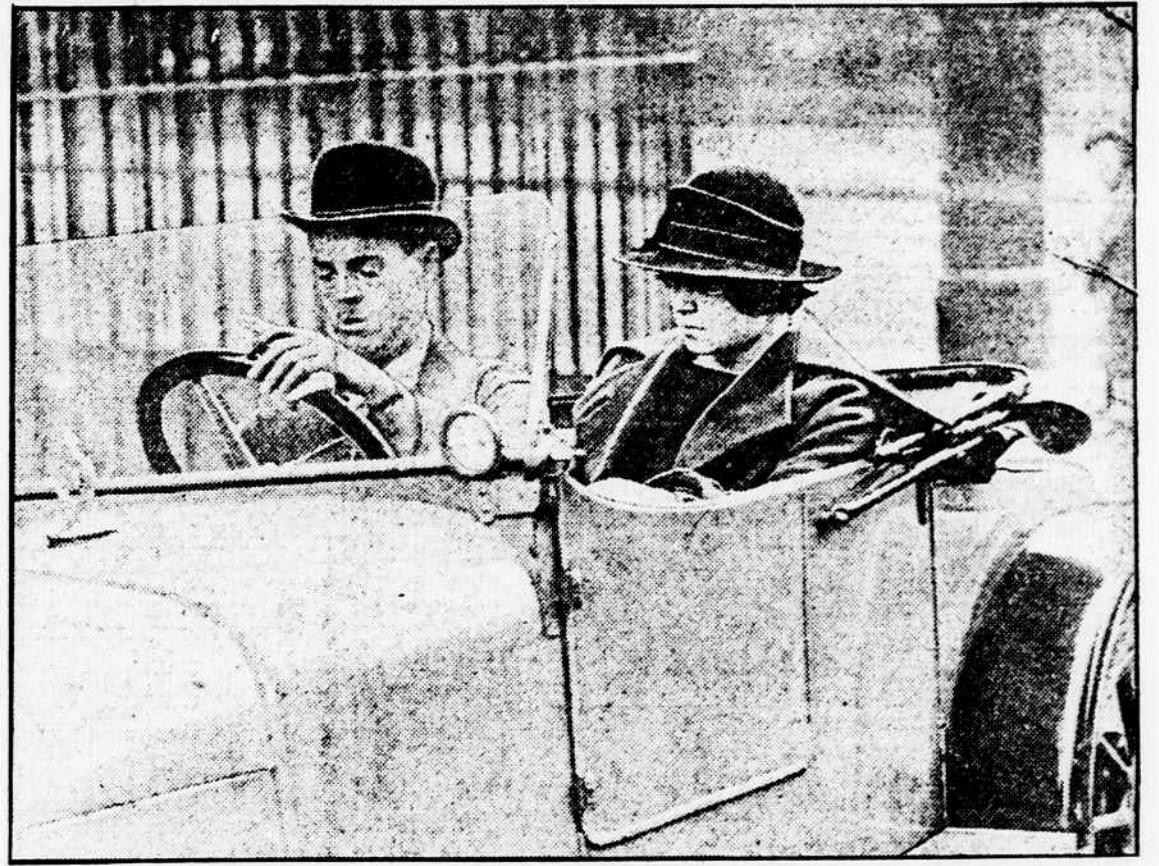

THE EVENING STAR, WASHINGTON, D. C., TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 7, 1922.

OLDEST MOVIE FAN. Crow chief, claimed to be 116 years old, is the oldest movie fan in America. He posed with Lois Wilson of the Paramount company on the Arapahoe reservation at Camp Cruze, Utah. Copyright by Underwood & Underwood.

SUCH A BEAN! It is of the New Guinea variety and was raised on the ranch of William Reese, Ventura, Calif. It measures three feet and one inch in length and is nearly a foot in diameter. Copyright by Underwood & Underwood.

PET DAUGHTER OF 10 DOWNING STREET. Miss Megan Lloyd George has left this famous home in London, but Miss Catherine Law, daughter of the new prime minister, has taken her place.

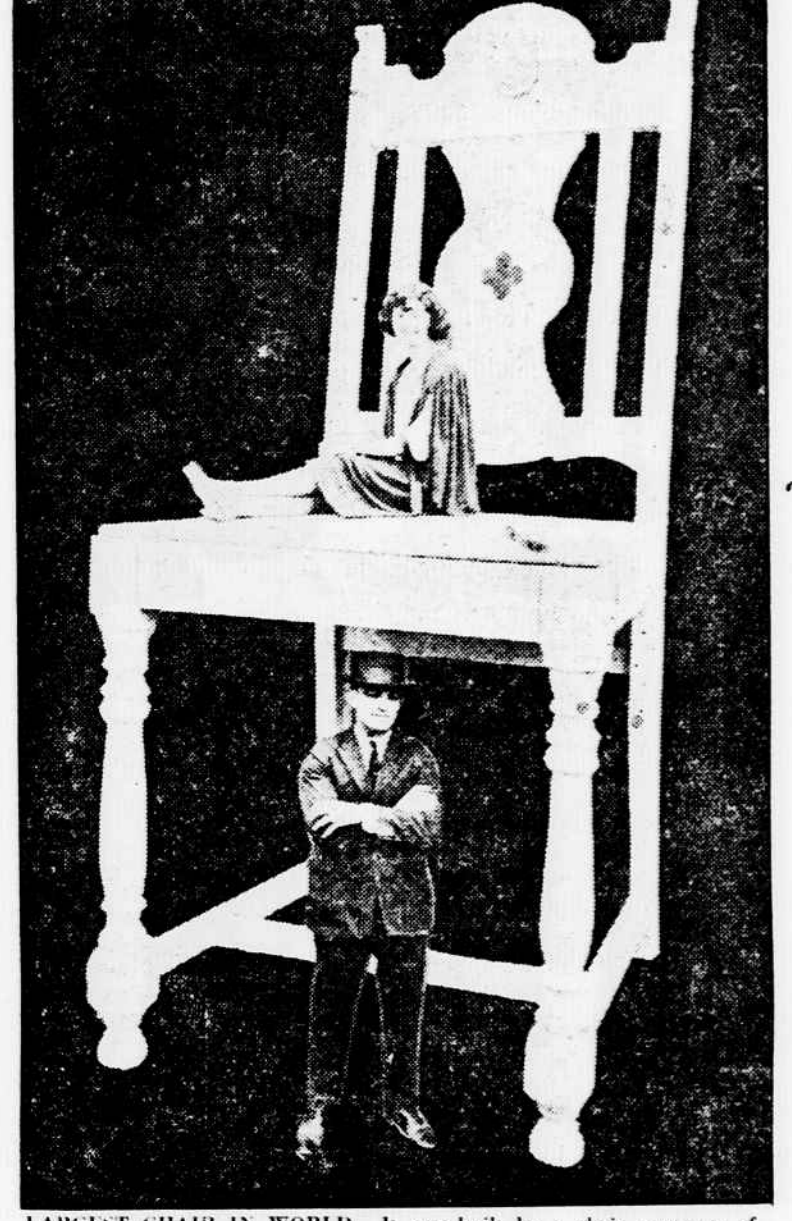

KING AND HIS SON. The present and future rulers of the British empire walking from Buckingham Palace to attend services at the Guards' Chapel across the park from the palace. Wide World Photo.

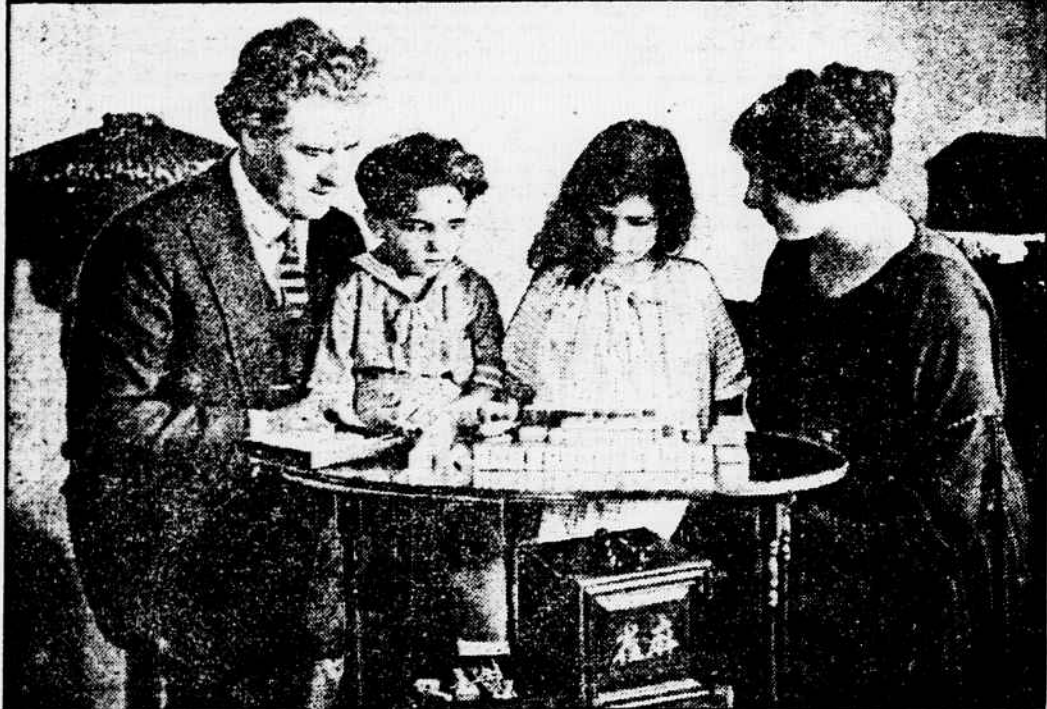

A BEAUTY OF CHILE. An English artist-photographer has declared Lady Lisbourne, wife of attaché of the Chilean legation in London, the most beautiful woman of Chile. Copyright by Underwood & Underwood.

PHYSICAL CULTURE BEAUTIES. Misses Dorothy Knapp and Alaska Liedermann, winners of the recent physical culture show in New York, appear in oriental costumes at the election eve bal masque. Wide World Photo.

LARGEST CHAIR IN WORLD. It was built by a chair company of Thomassville, N. C. The back is thirteen feet high, the front legs are six feet high and the chair contains enough material for 100 ordinary chairs. Wide World Photo.

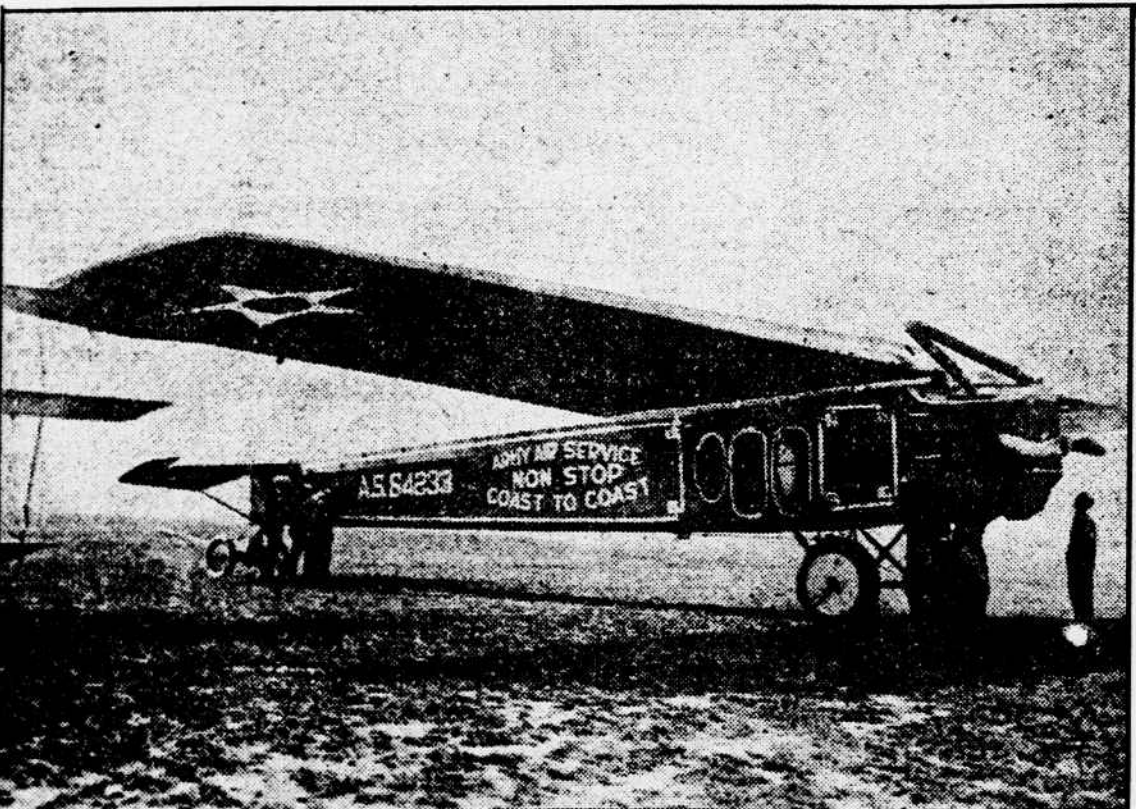

MARTINELLI AND FAMILY. This operatic star claims to have discovered an old Chinese game, and the photo shows him teaching his family its fine points. The game is called "Mah Jongg." Copyright by Underwood & Underwood.

TO STUDY IN THIS COUNTRY. Dr. and Mme. Neocle Ragusin of Buenos Aires, Argentina, who arrived in Washington yesterday. Dr. Ragusin, attached to the Argentine army, will study methods in the United States Army. National Photo.

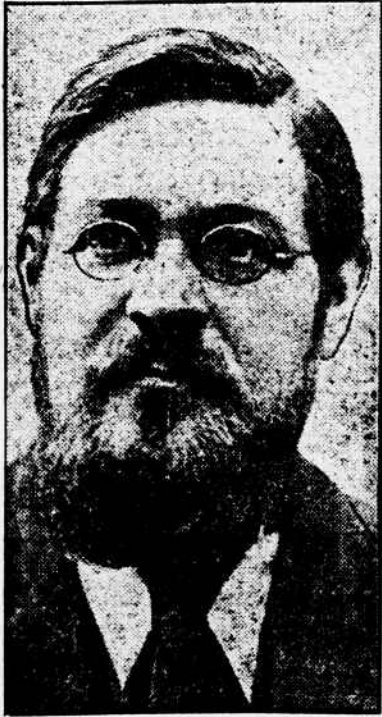

WIGS MADE OF WIRE. They are the latest things from Paris and are manufactured of delicate copper wire, colored with enamel. The wigs are designed for the Paris woman when she attends the theater. Wide World Photo.

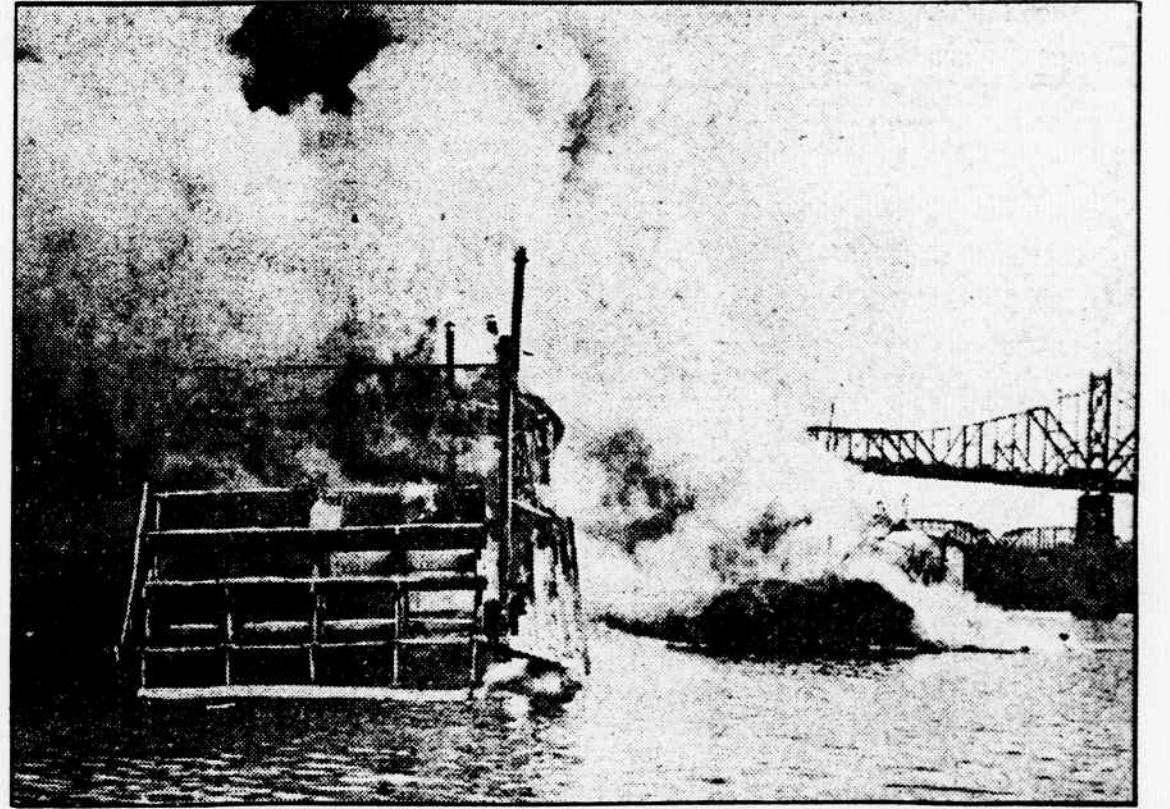

A FAMOUS PLANE. The United States Army monoplane T-2, photographed at Fort Benjamin Harrison, Indianapolis, after stop in attempt to cross the continent without landing. A cracked water-jacket forced the aviators, Kelly and Macready, to the ground. Wide World Photo.

Owen D. Young, who heads United States section of court and trade disputes of the world. The court is the result of two years' study and is to be independent of all agencies established by the governments.

Albert Thomas, French labor leader, who is reported to be arranging a visit to America next year. He hopes to persuade the United States to participate in the work of the international labor bureau.

A MILLION-DOLLAR FIRE. The Island Queen, large excursion boat of the Ohio river, and several other vessels tied up nearby were burned to the water's edge Sunday. The fire took place at a Cincinnati wharf and the loss is estimated at $1,000,000. Wide World Photo.